The Ballpark

A baseball park is a great place to spend an afternoon. You can go with your family. You can watch a ballgame.

At the game, you can see the baseball teams run on the field. You can see the players hit the ball. You can cheer for the team you like. You can jump up and down when your team gets a run. You can clap your hands.

Some people like to eat hot dogs at the ballpark. Some people like to eat ice cream. Other people do not like to eat anything at all. They just want to watch the game.

We always have a good time at the ballpark. You can too.
